Publications Assistant

£19,626 per annum Central London

Alzheimer's Society is the UK's leading charity for people with dementia and those who care for them.

We're looking for someone to join our Marketing and Publishing Team and help produce our high-quality publications. This will involve managing the update process for our information sheets and ensuring content checking is rigorous and material follows house style. You will also liaise with authors, editors, proofreaders and designers and edit material produced by internal departments. Ideally, you will have experience in a publishing environment.

For further information and to download an application form, please go to alzheimers.org.uk/jobs or contact Human Resources, Recruitment, Alzheimer's Society, Devon House, 58 St Katharine's Way, London E1W 1JX. Closing date for applications: 23 May 2008.

Alzheimer's Society is working towards equal opportunities.
