YA Book Prize 2021 shortlist

Loveless Alice Oseman

- In Loveless, we read the messages that Georgia and her friends send each other. Do you think this allows you to see a different side to their characters and relationships?
- The book introduces terms such as asexual and aromatic. Had you heard of these terms before, and what is your understanding of them now?
- Georgia is nervous about going to university. Have you ever been worried about doing something new? And did things turn out the way you expected them to?
- The main characters in the book form a Shakespeare Society. Are there any places in the book where you think the scenes that they act out reflect what's going on in their personal lives? Explain your answer.
- At the start of the book Georgia worries that she'll end up loveless, but do you think she still feels this way by the end?
