YA Book Prize 2021 shortlist

A Snowfall of Silver Laura Wood

- Why do you think Freya feels like she needs to run away from home?
- The story includes Freya's letters to her family. What does the way these are written tell us about her relationships with different family members?
- When Freya goes on tour with the theatre, what writing techniques does Laura Wood use to make readers feel like they are travelling with her?
- Freya discovers that there are many different job roles involved with a theatre production, and even realises that the perfect role for her may not be what she first expected. What job in theatre do you think would best suit you, and why?
- Viola and Russ are two of the play's leads. Do you think they are also acting off stage? Explain your answer.
